Day 2 - 18.11.2022

09:00 Departure from hotel Lovec

We will visit Pokljuka Plateau, a forested karst plateau at an elevation of around 1,100 to 1,400 metres located in the Julian Alps in northwestern Slovenia.

The plateau is known for its forests, mountain pastures, and winter sports facilities. It is also a common starting point for mountain hikers. The forested plateau is one of the most gorgeous areas of the Triglav National Park.

Forester at the Slovenian Forest Service will introduce close-to-nature forest management in predominantly spruce forests. We will walk through Peat Bog to learn more about the facts and importance of peat bogs that belong among the most precious natural areas in Europe.

15:00 Arrival back to hotel Lovec

As it is almost winter and cold temperatures can be expected, please wear warm clothing and appropriate footwear.

"Good practices and feasible ideas for more women in forestry exist. They need to be mainstreamed and implemented."

1.2.3 Fem4Forest project results

Fem4forest project and the role of women in the forestry sector in the Danube region was presented by the Work package leaders in Fem4Forest partnership:

Kathrin Böhling (D), Laura Bouriaud (RO), Heidi Gaube (A), Dagmar Karisch-Gierer (A), Amina Trle Trbić (BIH).

Later on, the Women in Forestry International - WOFO" was presented by Dagmar Karisch-Gierer, WOFO Chairwoman.

The role of women in policy making was presented by:

- Simone Schmiedtbauer, Member of EU Parliament
- Gianina Dimitrescu, Director, Department Strategies, Policies, Programs and Monitoring for Equal Opportunities at the National Romanian Agency for Equality of Chances for Women and Men

Towards the end of the conference, there were two round tables:

In the first round table, the importance of role models was presented. The moderator was Laura Bouriaud and role models from different countries participated.

In the second round table, we presented mentoring program as a tool to support women entering the forestry sector. Moderator was Heidi Gaube and mentors from different countries participated.

1.2.4 Field trips and side events

We visited Pokljuka Plateau, a forested karst plateau at an elevation of around 1,100 to 1,400 metres located in the Julian Alps in northwestern Slovenia. The plateau is known for its forests, mountain pastures, and winter sports facilities. It is also a common starting point for mountain hikers. The forested plateau is one of the most gorgeous areas of the Triglav National Park.

Forester at the Slovenian Forest Service introduced close-to-nature forest management in predominantly spruce forests. We walked through Peat Bog to learn more about the facts and importance of peat bogs that belong among the most precious natural areas in Europe.

1.3 Target achievements, results and outcomes

The aim of the conference was to show good practices and feasible ideas for more women in forestry exist.

This aim was reached, as the conference was very well accepted among the participants, the number of participants were high and the feedbacks after the conference were very positive.

In Bled, there were more than 100 participants and speakers. Participants were from 10 different countries: Bosnia-Herzegovina, Germany, Croatia, Austria, Romania, Switzerland, Slovenia, Czech republic, Ukraine, Italy.

On-line, there were 101 participants present. The on-line participants came from 35 different countries - Albania, Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Canada, Congo, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Greece, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Israel, Italy, Nigeria, Pakistan, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Tanzania, Togo, Ukraine, United Kingdom and Uzbekistan.
