Publisher's note: Elsevier takes a neutral position with respect to territorial disputes or jurisdictional claims in its published content, including in maps and institutional affiliations.

This book and the individual contributions contained in it are protected under copyright, and the following terms and conditions apply to their use in addition to the terms of any Creative Commons (CC) or other user license that has been applied by the publisher to an individual chapter.

Photocopying: Single photocopies of single chapters may be made for personal use as allowed by national copyright laws. Permission is not required for photocopying of chapters published under the CC BY license nor for photocopying for non-commercial purposes in accordance with any other user license applied by the publisher. Permission of the publisher and payment of a fee is required for all other photocopying, including multiple or systematic copying, copying for advertising or promotional purposes, resale, and all forms of document delivery. Special rates are available for educational institutions that wish to make photocopies for non-profit educational classroom use.

Derivative works: Users may reproduce tables of contents or prepare lists of chapters including abstracts for internal circulation within their institutions or companies. Other than for chapters published under the CCBY license, permission of the publisher is required for resale or distribution outside the subscribing institution or company. For any subscribed chapters or chapters published under a CC BY-NC-ND license, permission of the publisher is required for all other derivative works, including compilations and translations.

Storage or usage: Except as outlined above or as set out in the relevant user license, no part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without prior written permission of the publisher.

Permissions: For information on how to seek permission visit www.elsevier.com/permissions or call: (b1) 800-523-4069 x 3808.

Author rights: Authors may have additional rights in their chapters as set out in their agreement with the publisher (more information at <http://www.elsevier.com/authorsrights>).

Notice

Practitioners and researchers must always rely on their own experience and knowledge in evaluating and using any information, methods, compounds or experiments described herein. Because of rapid advances in the medical sciences, in particular, independent verification of diagnoses and drug dosages should be made. To the fullest extent of the law, no responsibility is assumed by the publisher for any injury and/or damage to persons or property as a matter of products liability, negligence or otherwise, or from any use or operation of any methods, products, instructions or ideas contained in the material herein. Although all advertising material is expected to conform to ethical (medical) standards, inclusion in this publication does not constitute a guarantee or endorsement of the quality or value of such product or of the claims made of it by its manufacturer.
